- (d) The Returning Officers shall count the ballots in the absence of the remaining Board members. Once the Returning Officers declare the results of a given ballot, the results shall stand, and the ballots and counting papers destroyed.
- (e) The Returning Officers shall recall the candidates to the room following the ballot count and shall announce the results: whether there is a majority winner, whether there is a tie, who is to be dropped from the ballot, and whether a new ballot is to occur.
